Making Fuel Charcoal from Sewage Sludge for Thermal Power Generation Plant—First in Japan

Toru ODA
Bureau of Sewerage, Tokyo Metropolitan Government
2-8-1 Nishi-shinjuku, Shinjuku-ku, Tokyo-to, Japan 163-8001

Abstract
The Bureau of Sewerage has launched a new project in which dewatered sludge is turned into fuel charcoal and sold for thermal power generation plant. This project scheme is implemented for the first time in Japan. This project is expected to strongly promote the utilization of sewage sludge and the reduction of greenhouse gas.

Conference
WEFTEC'07, 13-17/OCT/07, San Diego, CA, USA